

The Twenty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: “In Your goodness, O God, You provided for the needy”

All of Chapter 14 in the Gospel of Luke is a lesson in humility and probably the clearest statement from Jesus on the subject, "For everyone who exalts himself shall be humbled and he who humbles himself shall be exalted," in the eyes of God. The last part of this reading, with reference to inviting the poor, the lame and the blind to dinner, is not so much a directive, but rather an exaggeration of the point of observing the virtue of humility to benefit those less fortunate. Again, we must try to understand the spiritual (or Biblical) meaning of humility. It does not mean to demean or belittle oneself, but instead to recognize who we are in the eyes of God and what God is in our life and then recognizing that all of our possessions, talents and good qualities are God's gifts to us. What we do with them is our gift to God. Something to think about during your prayer time this week.

During the prayer and overnight adoration of the cross and the Blessed Sacrament, we want to spiritually connect with the participants of this action in Poland and ask that the cross may take a central place in our personal life and in the life of our nation.
