

THE SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: “ The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want”

Christ has not changed: He is the same yesterday, today and forever. He has the same compassion for us that He had for those Galileans; we too are often like sheep without a shepherd wandering half-lost through life. He is ever calling us to come to Himself so that He will lead us to safe pastures. If only we would listen to His merciful call! Today's Gospel is one such call — it goes out to every member of this congregation who has been lax in his or her religious life up to now. Christ wants us back on the high-road to heaven. All we have to do is to break with the past, with the earthly things that kept us from God. We can set out as free persons to follow Christ. He has left to His Church the Holy Sacrament of penance in which He guarantees us complete and entire remission of all past sins if we confess them with true sorrow. Let us not think that our sins are too big to be forgiven, that Christ could not have compassion on us because of our dreadful past. He came to call sinners, let us answer His call today—tomorrow might be too late.

Best Wishes

Sr. Anna Paluch, MChR.

Will be celebrating her name day on July 26th. May God continue to bless you with graces and may the Holy Spirit shower you with abundant gifts. With prayer, parishioners

THE MONTH OF JULY IN THE CHURCH

One particular devotion in the Catholic Church connected to the Passion of Jesus Christ is the honoring of his Precious Blood. It is a recognition of Jesus' sacrifice and how he shed His blood for the salvation of humanity. For these reasons the entire month of July is traditionally dedicated to the Precious Blood, and Catholics are encouraged to meditate on the profound sacrifice of Jesus and the pouring out of His blood for humanity. Below is the opening prayer of the votive Mass, as well as an additional prayer that can be used as our own personal meditation or prayer during July.

O God, who by the Precious Blood of Your only Begotten Son have redeemed the whole world, preserve in us the work of Your mercy, so that, ever honoring the mystery of our salvation, we may merit to obtain its fruits. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Admitted to your sacred table, O Lord, we have with joy drawn water from the fountains of the Savior: O may His Blood, we beseech Thee, become within us a fountain of water springing up to eternal life.
