

THE TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME Year "A"

Responsorial Psalm: "Remember your mercies, O Lord."

Christ took the form of a servant. He came not to be served, but to serve and to give His life for all. In all things and at all times, Christ was obedient to the Father, even unto death — death on the Cross. We fulfil the Father's will through obedience to the faith and by living according to Christ's truth, for the truth is found in Him. He came into the world to bear witness to the truth that saves and sets us free forever, making us truly free children of God, heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, born of the Spirit and guided by the Spirit. True obedience means listening to God's Word and putting it into practice.

Catechesis #99

- Who is the most important Person acting in every Liturgical Celebration?
- Are the Rosary and the Stations of the Cross liturgy in the same way as the Holy Mass?
