THE THIRTY SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - Year "A"

Responsorial Psalm: "My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God."

At the heart of our joyful Sunday celebration is the Risen Christ, who is present to us in the Eucharist. The source of our joy is the hope of our own resurrection, as St. Paul assures us. We must remain vigilant, however, so that we do not miss the coming of Christ. God's wisdom, so wonderful and unfading, teaches us to stay watchful, like the wise virgins waiting for the bridegroom. Through our participation in the Eucharist, we are filled with the experience of God's wisdom and learn to remain watchful and ready to welcome Christ when He comes.
