THE THIRTY THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - Year "A"

Responsorial Psalm: "Blessed are those who fear the Lord."

The source and beginning of our Sunday celebration is the Resurrection of Christ. Jesus made this day holy, and we call it the Lord's Day. By participating in Sunday Eucharist, we unite ourselves with the Risen Lord. Here we receive the strength to make our talents grow and learn to remain watchful, so that the decisive and most important day for us—the day of Christ's Second Coming—will not catch us by surprise or come like a thief in the night.

Catechesis 106

Today's Topic: "The Interior of the Church as a Place of Liturgical Celebration"

In this week's catechesis, you will find answers to these and other questions:

- Where did the first Christians pray before churches were built?
- Is the ambo simply a raised platform for the priest?

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Through the sacrament of Baptism, we welcome into the Church:

Maya Violet Perez

Brynlee Zofia Gastman

We wish the parents and godparents of the newly baptized
God's blessing and the protection of Our Lady of Ludzmierz for every day.

SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE

during the past week it was celebrated by:

Pawel Fila, son of Wiesław and Barbara

Karen Jasmine Abad, daughter of Rufino and Elisa

We wish the newlyweds that their marriage may be a lasting source of God's abundant grace and that they may always enjoy the loving protection of Our Blessed Mother.

SECOND COLLECTION

Today, the second collection will be taken in support of the Shepherds' Trust.

This fund assists retired priests who are in need. For many of them, it is a gesture of compassion and a helping hand during a time of need. Thank you for your generosity.
