Dear Parishioners,

Alleluia, Alleluia, the Lord has risen!

Death, suffering, pain, and sadness have been overcome.

Let us not run anxiously toward the tomb of Jesus.

Let us not stand fearfully at its threshold.

Let us enter inside and see that the tomb is empty...

Let us believe that Jesus lives!

The risen Jesus is the light for us and for the whole world.

He brings us hope and peace. He brings us certainty that we too will rise with Him someday and live.

We wish for you that the Risen Christ may be your joy and that He may lead you in faith, hope, and love towards resurrection and eternal life in heaven.

May this Easter season be a time of joy and peace.

May the radiance of the Risen Christ illuminate the paths of your daily life.

On behalf of the pastoral team:

Fr. Wojciech Kurzydło, OMI - Pastor

Alleluia!

PRAYER AT THE EASTER TABLE

The father of the family or the presider lights a candle placed on the table and says: Christ is risen. Alleluia.

All: Truly, He is risen. Alleluia.

Then one of the participants reads the following text from Scripture.

Let us listen to the words of the Gospel according to St. Matthew.

(Mt 6:31- 33) Jesus said to his disciples: "Do not be anxious, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'what shall we drink?' After all, your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first his kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things shall be yours as well.

After reading the text, the Presider says:

Let us pray. We joyfully praise you Lord Jesus Christ, who, after your resurrection, appeared to your disciples in the breaking of bread. Be with us as we gratefully share these gifts, and as we welcome you as our guest in our brothers and sisters today, welcome us as partakers in your kingdom.

Who live and reign forever and ever. All: Amen.

After the meal, the father of the family or the presider says: Let us pray: O God, source of life, fill our hearts with Paschal joy, and just as you have given us food from the earth, grant that the new life merited for us through Christ's death and Resurrection, and given to us in his mercy may always endure. Who live and reign forever and ever. All: Amen.
