

THE FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: “ Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for His Mercy”

The Gospel of Mark today tells us about the role of the twelve. They are called. They are chosen. They are sent out. They are given a mission. How much easier for us if God only chose them and not us! How much easier is it for us if only the pope, the bishops and the priests must have responsibilities for preaching and spreading the word of God and the joy of His Church! Instead, we are chosen people and the pope and the bishops and the priests are only there to serve the whole Church. Perhaps some of us remember before the Second Vatican Council when many of us thought of the Church as basically priests and religious—both religious sisters and brothers. In the Council nothing new was proclaimed. Instead, the Council sought to renew the Church so that all believers could recognize the dignity of one another. Through the Council we were invited to recognize, not as something new but as something that had always been taught but not always understood—that all of us who believe are the Church and that within the Church there are various roles but those roles don't make anyone better or worse. The roles are just an act of service. We see this teaching already and very clearly in the Apostle Paul. Today we are invited, each one of us, to recognize our own calling and to seek to know what God asks of us in order to spread the Kingdom. Let us open our hearts and our minds in faith.

POPE'S MONTHLY INTENTIONS – JULY

For the pastoral care of the sick - We pray that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick confer to those who receive it and their loved ones the power of the Lord and become ever more a visible sign of compassion and hope for all.

THE MONTH OF JULY IN THE CHURCH

The Precious Blood

One particular devotion in the Catholic Church connected to the Passion of Jesus Christ is the honoring of his Precious Blood. It is a recognition of Jesus' sacrifice and how he shed His blood for the salvation of humanity. For these reasons the entire month of July is traditionally dedicated to the Precious Blood, and Catholics are encouraged to meditate on the profound sacrifice of Jesus and the pouring out of His blood for humanity. Below is the opening prayer of the votive Mass, as well as an additional prayer that can be used as our own personal meditation or prayer during July.

O God, who by the Precious Blood of Your only Begotten Son have redeemed the whole world, preserve in us the work of Your mercy, so that, ever honoring the mystery of our salvation, we may merit to obtain its fruits. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your

DEATH NOTICE

Last week we bid farewell to:

† Daniel Widzinski (71)

† Jozef Szapiel (79)

Let us remember them and their family in our prayers

Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Admitted to your sacred table, O Lord, we have with joy drawn water from the fountains of the Savior: O may His Blood, we beseech Thee, become within us a fountain of water springing up to eternal life.
