

THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER, year C

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: "We are his people, the sheep of his flock."

Jesus is the only one who can offer a person eternal life, but this promise is reserved for those who follow Him and heed His voice. Those who do are safely held in God's hands, and His hands are timeless. As long as He embraces us, we too can share in that eternity. But do we truly value being in God's hands? Are we hesitant because we fear losing our freedom? Consider this: What kind of freedom leads only to death? True freedom is found in embracing the eternal life God offers to us.

Cardinal Robert Francis Prevost
