

THE TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, year C

Responsorial psalm: "Do not forget the works of the Lord!"

God gives everything to save us. In essence, "only-begotten son" means "everything." A loving father values his only son's life above his own, just as God sacrificed greatly for our salvation. Why? Because we are priceless to Him, despite our sins and unfaithfulness. God never abandons us, even when we turn away. It is His love that brings salvation, and our own efforts are insufficient. We can choose to reject this gift and live apart from Him, but in doing so, we condemn ourselves. Embrace His love and experience true salvation.
